VII. SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER

A. SUD Oversight Board Meeting Minutes (10.5.21)

Mr. Johnson presented the minutes from the October meeting. He reported that Deb O'Brien announced her retirement and nominated Olivia DeMoss to fill her vacancy on the SUD Oversight Board. The Board will review her nomination and bring to the November meeting.

VIII. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Afghan Nationals: Mr. Johnson reported there are about 1,300 Afghan nationals currently housed on military bases that will be resettled in the Michigan counties of Wayne, Ingham, Washtenaw, and Kent.

Direct Care Wage Increase – There is DCW increase in the FY22 state budget of $2.35/hr. We are expecting to receive the specifics regarding eligible individuals and how it is to be applied.

CCBHC: The St. Clair CCBHC is up and running and funding for this demonstration project is included in our capitation.

OHH: This project began October 1st and includes one partner, Sacred Heart. We will add more partners to our panel in the future.

American Rescue Plan: We received parameters from the state for use of the American Rescue Plan dollars for the SUD block grant. We anticipate requesting funds for recovery coaching to improve engagement in the network and for supporting community recovery organizations.

Building: Mr. Johnson stated there will be a presentation at next month's board meeting on potential re-location sites for Region 10.

System Redesign: There have been three hearings on the Shirkey proposal. Deb Johnson and the St. Clair County Sheriff testified at one of them. The House Democrats have started their listening tour and will likely propose how to improve the public health system. The Association of Health Plans have ramped up their efforts to align with Shirkey's proposal.
